Nisga'a Language & Culture Directorate

The office of the Nisga'a Language and Culture directorate is currently located in New Aiyansh, BC at the Raven House, an SD92 building formerly known as one of the "Group Homes". The exterior colour of the Raven House is green, and our front door can be found at the back, side entrance (maps/diagrams attached in following pages).

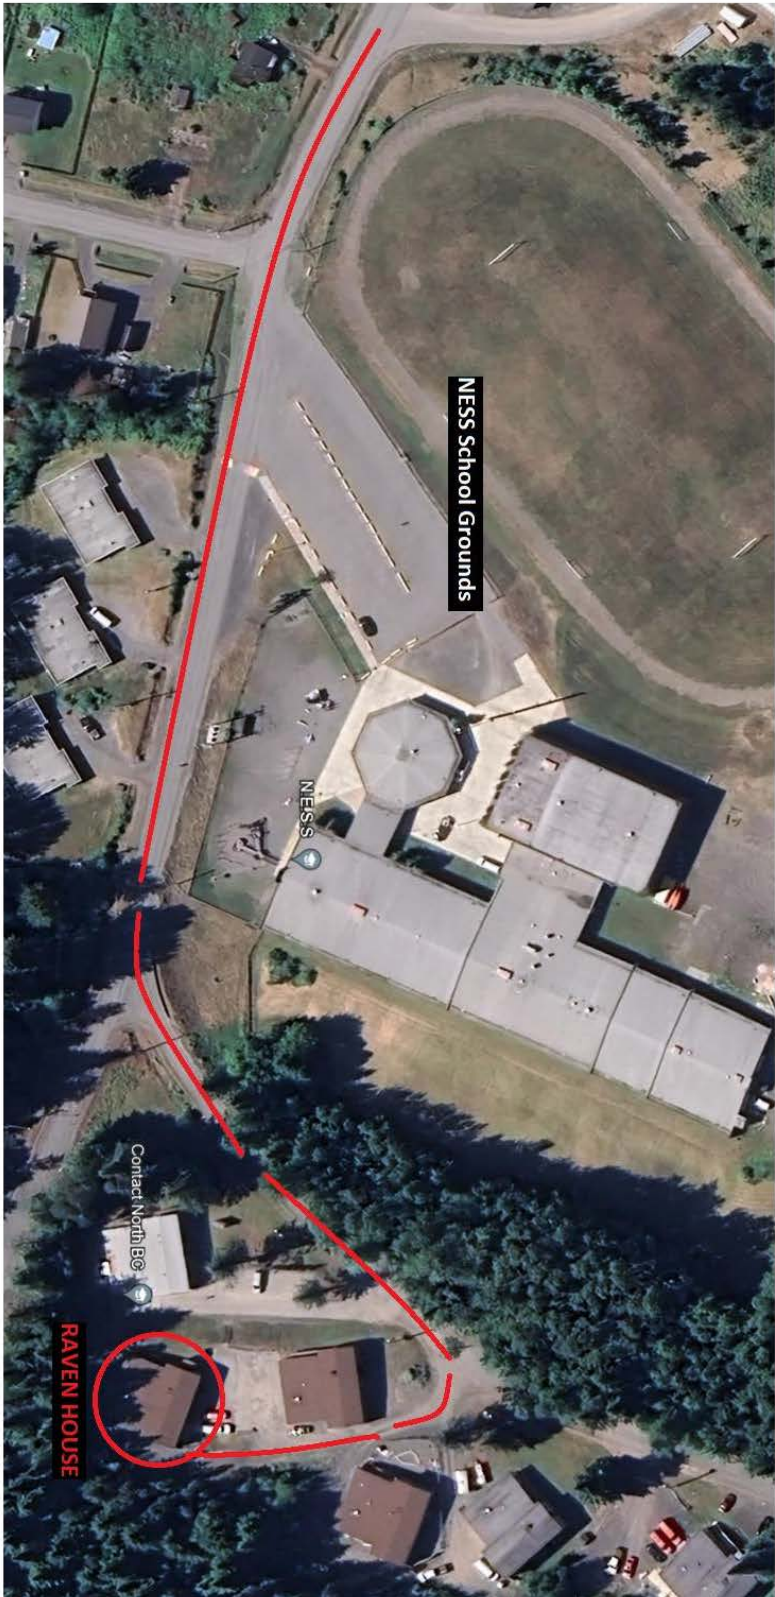

The hours of operation are from 9am – 5pm, Monday through Friday, unless otherwise posted on our door. Our staff are generally available during the lunch break.

In addition to many services the directorate offers, there are books available for purchase. Below you will find the titles, fee schedule and a brief description of each. Currently, the only forms of payment we accept are cash or certified cheque.
